“ Although I served alongside a big pot of chili for guests, it's a great warm weather dish. Will definitely be making again! Reviews below were very helpful and I might add to take care to get as much moisture as you can out of the tomato & cuke or else the dressing gets a little soupy. Also, I used frozen corn and straight Merlot instead of red wine vinegar and it kept it very mellow. ”

“ Really quick and good salad... I found that one tomato was plenty though. Also I added some lime juice and chopped chipolte to the dressing and cut the oil in half. Nice, fresh alternative to heavy mayo-based salads. ”

“ I have made this without the sourcream and red onion and it is still WONDERFUL. I took it to a party on our sailboat and wanted something without mayo or milk products. It is better the next day. Great salad for this time of year with the tomatoes, cucumbers and corn fresh from our farmers markets.
