

Hamburg Central School District

Hamburg F2S Team
NE Farm To School Institute
Shelburne Farms, VT
June 25-28, 2019

Left to right: Anita Trautwein (ECSNA),
Shannon Gilmartin, Anne Rich, Tricia
Miller, Cheryl Thayer, Kaitlin Sylvester,
Nicole Lauer

Not pictured: Wendy Heslink, Becky O'Connor

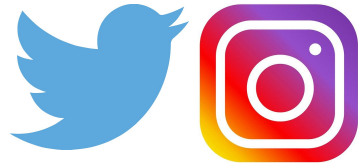

@HSCDF2S Values Statement:

Hamburg Schools Farm To School Initiative strives to create lasting health and wellness in our community through exposure to hands on learning, accessibility to healthy foods and collaboration between cafeterias, classrooms and the greater community. It is our goal to continuously grow mutually beneficial partnerships with local farms and businesses supporting the local economy, and establishing lifelong healthy habits for families in our district.

NE F2S Institute Highlights:

- Created action plan for 2018-19 school year with Coach Cheryl Thayer
- American Farmland Trust (AFT) granted us $5000 to help implement plans
- Shannon created, & manages, our social media accounts on Twitter, Instagram & Facebook

@HCSDF2S

Hamburg Central School District Farm to School Initiative

Opening Meeting / F2S Training hosted by Jill Chiachia at Be Healthy Institute

Top: Farmer Dan Henry
Left: Chef Tom Kunz
Right: Staff sharpening their new knife skills!

Open House Visits
September 2018

Hamburg Central School
Food and Nutrition Services

2018-2019 Harvest of the Month

September - Corn & Zucchini

October - Apples & Kale

November - Broccoli & Cauliflower

December - Winter Squash

January - Dried Beans

February - Beets and Berries

March - Cabbage

April - Root Vegetables

May - Tomatoes & Asparagus

June - Field Greens

By participating in our school meal programs, not only are you supporting our school district but also the local community and NYS economy. Thank You!!

Proudly Serving Local Items from:

THE PERFECT GRANOLA

Hamburg Central School District Farm ... to School Initiative

Page Liked · October 25, 2018 · 🌐

TOP :Principal, Nicole Lauer, of Boston Valley School give the students some information about the local apples they are about to bite into for today's BIG APPLE CRUNCH. BELOW: Students at BVS CRUNCH their Lynoaken Apples. 🍏 🍏

October 25, 2019

Ms. Carr & Mrs. Watson's
5th Grade Crunch

At BPS F2S Kick-off
October 23, 2018

UPES Crunch
October 25, 2018

From Wheat to Bread
Learning Journey
October 26, 2018

Halloween Fun at Armor (below) MS (right)

Adrienne Sorrento, Manager Sue Lakso, Patty Lavelle

Left: Jane Wittmer, MS

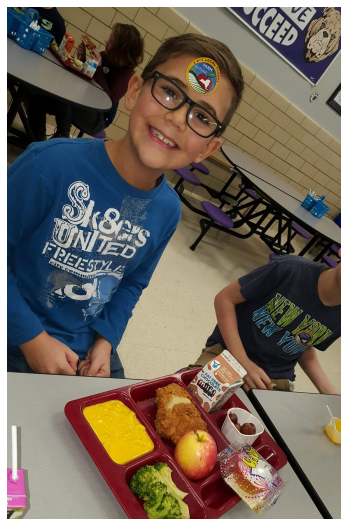

Thanksgiving Turkey Dinner

December HOM Winter Squash

Below: Tricia working her magic, getting kids to try Three Sisters Casserole!

ButterNUTTY Mac n Cheese

Tis the Season!
Acorn Squash Wedge from Bipperts Farms

New! NY Concord Grape Slushie

I ❤️ NY[®]

Bandit Beans made with Bush's Vegetarian Beans and NY Black & Pinto Beans (Jan HOM)

February HOM - Beets
Tasting Beet Hummus made from NY Love Beets

NY Egg Roll

Multiple fruit & veggie options offered daily at all Hamburg schools

Faye's NY Bean Salad

High School Favorites

Above: Becky O'Connor, Shannon Gilmartin, Kaitlin Sylvester; Right: Cheryl Thayer

November 9, 2018: Touring the Farm Hub after attending workshops on Building Community Connections, Exploring Culturally Appropriate Foods for School Lunch, F2S Success and Navigating New Guidelines

CONGRATULATIONS to the 2019 Farm to School
Partnership Award
Winners!

Merchandizing/Promoting Local Foods

Buffalo Public Schools / Bridget O'Brien Wood

Wayne County School Nutrition Association / Donna Riviello & Nique Wilson

Working with Local Farms

Broome Tioga BOCES & Food and Health Network (FAHN) / Julie Raway & Erin Summerlee

Newcomb Central School / Skip Hults, Chris Fisher, & David Hughes

Distribution: finding creative ways to get or receive local farm products

Hamburg Central School District / Anne Rich

Southampton Union Free School District / Regan Kiembock

Follow Us!

@HCSDF2S

Hamburg Central School District Farm to School Initiative
